

Photo by Micah Weiss

EAT. DANCE. RECOVER.

for the best restaurants, night clubs, and brunch spots in San Francisco.

personality hotels
SAN FRANCISCO

EAT

West Coast Quintessential:

Farallon (Union Square) – “Coastal Cuisine” with an interior decor resemblant of an underwater fantasy. Amazing happy hour.

New/Trendy: Tosca Cafe (North Beach) – A vintage appeal, with red leather booths & dinette chairs, an oldies jukebox, and Prohibition style drinks gives homage to the 20's. Delicious Italian. Try the House “Cappucino.”

Vegetarian: Millenium (Tenderloin) – Organic, sustainable dishes with a hearty flair. So California.

Classic Cool: NOPA (NOPA) – Urban-rustic specializing in organic, wood-fired cuisine. Great array of wines to choose from. Kitchen open until 1:00am.

Tres Chic: Foreign Cinema (Mission) – daily changing California/Mediterranean-inspired menu in an indoor/outdoor setting. Foreign films projected on the exposed brick wall in the courtyard.

Late Night Nice: Beretta (Mission) – Fresh and trendy cocktails, thin crust pizzas, and contemporary Italian. Food served until 1:00am.

Best Rooftop View: El Techo (Mission) – Delicious Latin American inspired street food and cocktails “del sol” with a breathtaking city scene surrounding.

CITY GIRLS DO HAVE MORE FUN

DANCE

Rooftop Setting: Jones (Tenderloin) – Known as one of SF's biggest rooftop lounges, come for music, drinks, dinner, and brunch!

Tres Cool: Monarch (SOMA) – Recently voted with one of the top ten sound systems in the US. Lux club on the downstairs floor, Victorian Steampunk embellished bars on top.

New Trendy: Audio (SOMA) – For an all-inclusive visual-sound-kinetic experience. Recently won “Best New Club” and “Best Venue Sound” in 2014.

Versatile Fun: Public Works (Mission) – performance/event space, bar, art gallery and artist work shop all in one. Always a surprise.

Throwback Favorite: Make Out Room (Mission) – For a 50's, 60's, 70's, 80's dance party! Any night of the week this little gem has DJ's spinning all vinyl from one decade to the next.

Funky Classic: The Independent (Alamo Square) – An intimate space for a little bit of everything in music from old to new.

RECOVER

Cute & Close: Colibri (Union Square) – central Mexican cuisine in a charming, turn of the century cantina setting. Delicious bottomless mimosas! Brunch available on weekends only.

Trendy Southern: Farmer Brown (Union Square) – Old country classics with the best of West Coast ingredients paired with some of the most unique cocktails in town. Brunch available on weekends only.

Good Ole American: Homeskillet (Union Square) – great American style brunch with the super sustainable and deliciously earthy Equator coffee.

Hip Soul: Brenda's French Soul Food (Tenderloin) – the title explains it all: go get Beachy Keen: Mission Beach Cafe (Mission) – gourmet brunch plates in SF's sunniest neighborhood.

The Cure: Starbelly (Castro) – hearty, indulgent dishes to bust that headache. Awesome back patio. Brunch available on weekends only.

MAKE YOUR GETAWAY A FABULOUS ONE.

personality hotels
SAN FRANCISCO

HOTEL UNION SQUARE | HOTEL DIVA
KENSINGTON PARK | THE STEINHART

Snap your selfies and use
#citygirlgetaway for a chance to be featured @PersonalityHotels

